Exclusion Policy for St Catherine's College

In support of our mission statement we recognise God's children at the heart of everything we do. We will only use exclusions when we consider it to be in the best interests of the individual and the School community. We are committed to supporting every pupil through our wide-ranging pastoral care; section 8 of our Behaviour Policy outlines 22 of the support strategies that may be used to help pupils improved their behaviour.

This guidance is supplementary to and should be read in conjunction with the DFE Guidance "Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England / Statutory guidance for those with legal responsibilities in relation to exclusion" – which came into effect in January 2015.¹ All decisions about exclusion must be made with reference to the DFE guidance which outlines statutory responsibilities.

It should be noted that the DFE exclusion guidance is statutory guidance. In reading and interpreting the guidance, it should be note that when the terms "shall" or "must" are used, this means that the actions are mandatory. If the term "should" is used, this means that the action is discretionary.

When the guidance states that schools and academies "must have regard to..." this does not mean that the sections of the statutory guidance have to be followed in every detail but that they should be followed unless there is good reason not to in a particular case.

This policy is in line with and reflects the East Sussex County Council - Exclusion Guidance for Schools and Academies (Updated: October 2012).

¹ The overall legislation governing the exclusion process remains unchanged. Regulations have been amended to clarify that governing bodies' duty to arrange education from the sixth day of a fixed period exclusion would be triggered by consecutive fixed period exclusions totalling more than five days.

Statutory guidance has been updated in a small number of areas, in particular to provide greater confidence to headteachers on their use of exclusion and greater clarity to independent review panels and governing bodies on their consideration of exclusion decisions.

About this policy

East Sussex County Council, herein after is referred to as the Local Authority (LA). The guidance applies equally to children with and without statements of special educational needs.

This guidance is intended to be of assistance to all parties involved in the exclusion process including head teachers; governing bodies; local authorities; and independent review panel members.

The requirements of the guidance apply in relation to all pupils, including those who may be below or above compulsory school age, such as those attending nursery classes or Post-16 education.

The definition of a parent for the purposes of the Education Act is broadly drawn. In addition to the child's birth parents, references to parents in this guidance include any person who has parental responsibility (which includes the LA where it has a care order in respect of the child) and any person (for example, a foster carer) with whom the child lives. Where practicable it is expected that all those with parental responsibility should be engaged with the exclusion process.

The Education Support, Behaviour & Attendance Service (ESBAS) should be the first point of contact for any queries that head teachers, governors, parents, pupils or others may have regarding exclusions.

Where a reference to a 'term' is given in this guidance and the DFE guidance, it means the period falling between: 31 December to Easter Monday; Easter Monday to 31 July; or 31 July to 31 December.

1. Exclusion as a Last Resort

- 1.1 Exclusion from school should be used as a last resort in response to serious or persistent breaches of a school's behaviour policy and when allowing the pupil to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of the pupil and others in the school. Other than in the case of a serious one-off offence (such as serious actual or threatened violence, sexual abuse or assault, supplying an illegal drug or carrying an offensive weapon) exclusion should only be used when other approaches have been unsuccessful.
- 1.2 If a pupil is deemed to be at risk of exclusion it would be considered appropriate to have a Pastoral Support Programme and/or a CAF to enable a range of strategies and support to be implemented.
- 1.3 As a school we should, as far as possible, avoid permanently excluding any pupil with a statement of SEN or any pupil who is a looked after child.

2. Head teacher's Checklist

2.1 Any decision to exclude a pupil must be:

- lawful;
- reasonable; and
- fair

2.2 In making a decision to exclude a pupil, the head teacher must be able to demonstrate that the exclusion has been carefully considered and is being used as a last resort. The checklist below is designed to assist head teachers in these deliberations.

The circumstances of the case	Yes	No
Has there been a serious breach or breaches of the school behaviour policy?
Does the pupil's presence seriously harm or threaten to harm the education/welfare of pupils / others?
Is exclusion a last resort following a wide range of other strategies that have been unsuccessful? or Is this a serious 'one off' offence?

The circumstances of the case	Yes	No
Is exclusion the appropriate response? Factors to consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Has a thorough investigation been carried out? • Has the pupil's version of events been sought / encouraged / recorded? • Has the evidence been considered in the light of school policies and possible discrimination? • Are there any mitigating circumstances or any provocation which may be relevant (bullying, harassment etc)?
Has a Pastoral Support Programme been used?
Is this pupil at school action or school action plus? and if so; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Has the possibility of additional support from the LA been explored?
Have alternatives to exclusion been considered (e.g. restorative approach, mediation, internal exclusion)?
Standard of proof – “on the balance of probabilities” did the pupil do what he/she is alleged to have done?
Special considerations	Yes	No
SEN Does this pupil have a statement of special educational needs? Has the SEN county team been contacted? Has an emergency review been arranged?
LAC Is this pupil looked after? Has the virtual school for children in care been contacted?
SAFEGUARDING Is this pupil subject to a child protection or a child in need plan?
Is there a CAF for this pupil? What other agencies/services are involved?
Have issues of SEN or disability been taken into account and reasonable adjustments put in place?

3. Notification of Exclusions

3.1 When a head teacher has decided to exclude a pupil he/she must:

- Immediately inform the parent(s) by telephone;
- Draft the appropriate letter (see model letters in appendices);
- Ensure that the letter is sent by first class recorded post to arrive the following day or is hand delivered to parent(s)/Carer(s) should they be able to collect it from the school;
- Ensure that the letter contains the following information:

- the reasons for the exclusion;
- the period of fixed term exclusion or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent;
- parents' right to make representation about the exclusion to the governing body (in line with the requirements set out in paragraphs 50 to 57 of the DFE guidance) and how the pupil may be involved in this;
- how any representation should be made; and
- when there is a legal requirement for the governing body to consider the exclusion, that the parents have a right to attend a meeting, be represented at this meeting (at their own expense) and to bring a friend.

3.2 The head teacher has a duty to inform the governing body and the LA of certain types of exclusion:

- A permanent exclusion;
- A fixed term exclusion where the head teacher has indicated to the parent that following further investigation it may be made permanent;
- Exclusions which would result in the pupil being excluded for more than five days (or more than ten lunchtimes) in a term; and exclusions which would result in the pupil missing a public examination or national curriculum test.

3.3 For all other exclusions the head teacher must notify the LA and governing body once a term. However, as best practice, head teachers should ensure an EXNO1 notification is completed after each exclusion and forwarded to ESBAS so that the county pupil database can be kept up to date (see Appendix A for updated EXNO1 notification form).

3.4 For a permanent exclusion, if the pupil lives outside the LA in which the school is located, the head teacher must also advise the pupil's 'home authority' of the exclusion without delay.

4. Unofficial / Illegal Exclusions

4.1 The procedures described above and in the DFE guidance must always be applied when a pupil is excluded. Sending a pupil home informally for a "cooling-off period" or asking parents to take a pupil home to avoid an exclusion are illegal acts which could be subject to challenge. This also applies to lunchtimes; if a pupil is asked by the school to go home at lunchtimes this must also be treated as a half-day exclusion for each lunchtime.

4.2 At no time should a school encourage a parent to off-roll their child to electively home educate in order to avoid a permanent exclusion. Each year a significant number of children are removed from the roll of schools under the guise of elective home education (EHE). In many cases, these children have significant behavioural and/or emotional needs and parents are not always able to provide for them appropriately. Such children will either not have access to the provision that they need or will transfer to a new school without appropriate support thereby placing additional pressures on both schools and families. Schools should, therefore, not promote the use of EHE as a means to remove a child with challenging behaviour or poor attendance from their roll. Further guidance on the restrictions of off-rolling a pupil can be found on czone:

https://czone.eastsussex.gov.uk/schoolmanagement/administration/attendancebehaviour/pupilattendance/Documents/Off_rol_guidance.pdf

5. Part-time / Reduced Timetables

- 5.1 It is illegal for a school to impose a reduced or “part-time” timetable.
- 5.2 In some cases, if a pupil has been out of school, unwell or excluded, a part-time timetable may be used as a short-term measure towards achieving full reintegration, building back up to full time hours as long as the parents are in agreement and a written agreement, signed by all parties with stated review dates where appropriate, put in place.
- 5.3 Schools must undertake a risk assessment of the pupil’s needs to assess the impact that a reduced timetable would have on the pupil. It is essential that the pupil’s welfare during any absence from school is considered. Risk assessments should follow the five steps identified by the Health and Safety Executive:
- Step 1: Identify possible hazards.
 - Step 2: Decide who may be harmed and how.
 - Step 3: Evaluate the risks and decide on precaution.
 - Step 4: Record your findings and implement them.
 - Step 5: Regularly review your assessment and update if necessary.
- 5.4 The risk assessment should include the safety and wellbeing of the pupil as well as the risk of the pupil engaging in criminal activity or substance misuse whilst not in receipt of education during the school day. Further guidance on reduced timetables can be found on czone:

https://czone.eastsussex.gov.uk/schoolmanagement/administration/attendancebehaviour/Documents/Reduced_Timetable_Guidance.pdf

6. Procedures following Exclusion

- 6.1 The 2012 DFE guidance no longer places a requirement on schools (in certain categories of exclusion) to hold a reintegration meeting prior to readmission. However, it would be considered as good practice to have such a meeting with parents, the pupil, and appropriate support services to put a plan in place to support the pupil and avoid any future exclusions; this could include a CAF or Pastoral Support Programme.

6.2 Head teachers should note, however, that neither parents nor a pupil can be required to meet specific conditions, such as attending a reintegration meeting, before reinstatement.

7. SEN / Disability / Vulnerable Group Considerations

7.1 Head teachers should, as far as possible, avoid permanently excluding any pupil with a statement of SEN. If the pupil being considered for exclusion has special educational needs (SEN) or any disability, the following considerations must be taken into account. Children with SEN may not necessarily have a disability. The definition of disability is not the same as the definition of special educational needs but there may be overlap between those who have SEN and those who have a disability. Please refer to paragraphs 20-24 of the DFE guidance.

Children with Disabilities	Yes	No
Does this pupil have a statement and/or disability? i.e. does he/she have a mental or physical impairment that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • is adverse; • is long term; • is substantial; • affects his/her ability to carry out normal day to day activities? (mobility, manual dexterity, physical coordination, ability to lift, carry or otherwise move everyday objects, speech, hearing or eyesight, memory or ability to concentrate, learn or understand perception of risk of physical danger).
Has the pupil been treated less favourably? i.e. would/has a pupil without a disability have been dealt with in the same way? The head teacher will need to consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • what is less favourable treatment? • what is the reason for less favourable treatment? • is the reason directly related to the pupil's disability? • can less favourable treatment be justified? • is the justification material and substantial?

Have reasonable adjustments been made for the pupil? The head teacher will need to consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • would failure to make reasonable adjustments place the pupil at a substantial disadvantage? • could the need to make reasonable adjustments have been anticipated? • has the school reviewed its policies, practices and procedures (continuing responsibility)? • do reasonable adjustments involve removal/alteration of physical features? • do reasonable adjustments involve provision of auxiliary aids/services (SEN framework)? • have relevant factors been explored and balanced? • the need to maintain standards; • the financial resources available; • the cost of taking a particular step; • the extent to which it is practicable to take a particular step; • the extent to which auxiliary aid/services will be provided under the SEN framework; • health and safety requirements; • the interests of other pupils/prospective pupils; • could the school have been reasonably expected to know about the disability (confidentiality; lack of knowledge)? • can act/omission be materially and substantially justified?

8. The Governing Body's Duty to Consider an Exclusion – Key Points

- 8.1 The responsibility of the governing body to consider exclusions is usually delegated to a sub committee of at least three governors. This committee is known as the Discipline Committee. The Discipline Committee has a clear set of responsibilities.
- 8.2 Where required or requested, the governing body must hold a Governors Discipline Committee (GDC) within the required timescale. (In the case of a permanent exclusion, the GDC must meet within 15 school days of being notified of the exclusion).
- 8.3 The GDC should consist of 3 or 5 governors who have no previous knowledge of the case. The Chair of the governing body should not be part of the GDC if he/she has previously discussed the case with the head teacher or has had any prior involvement with the case as this could compromise his/her impartiality.
- 8.4 The GDC should be clerked by a person who has had appropriate training. Minutes must be taken and distributed to all parties upon request to those who were present.
- 8.5 A LA representative from ESBAS should be invited to all GDCs at the school. The LA's position will be one of neutrality where the representative would not give his/her view on the merits of the particular exclusion, but rather draw the attention of the panel to issues where there is a lack of clarity or where more information may be needed or where guidance appears not to have been adhered to. In essence, the LA representative will act as an impartial third party, providing objective and dispassionate representations to assist the process.

8.6 As the GDC is responsible for reviewing the decision of the head teacher to exclude a pupil, it would be considered good practice for the GDC to use the head teacher checklist (section 2) when reviewing the exclusion.

8.7 In balancing the needs of the individual against the broader interests of the other pupils and staff within the school, it is recommended that the GDC also consider the following:

Considerations for the Discipline Committee	Comments
What is the quality of the evidence? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have the facts been established? • Was a full investigation, involving appropriate witnesses, carried out? • To what extent are the facts agreed between the relevant parties? • How did the incident relate to the school's behaviour policy? • Was the pupil responsible for the behaviour that led to the exclusion? (Governors should consider matters on the 'balance of probability' and if there is serious doubt, a reinstatement should be directed).
Was the exclusion a proportionate response? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • was exclusion a reasonable and proportionate response to the behaviour? • was it fair in respect of sanctions imposed on any other pupils involved in an incident?
Were alternative strategies tried? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If the exclusion was a response to an ongoing pattern of deteriorating behaviour, was it used as a 'last resort' after other strategies, including the involvement of outside agencies and support services, had failed? (A PSP should be in place, clearly identifying school strategies, internal and external support).

Were there any mitigating circumstances?

- Are there any factors arising from parental representation? e.g. special / medical needs, domestic circumstances, genuine remorse, loss of external examination opportunity.

9. Fair Hearings and Natural Justice

- 9.1 It is important that the GDC provides all parties with a fair hearing and that the rules of natural justice are adhered to. Every effort should be made to ensure that this happens.
- 9.2 The case should be clearly stated and evidence produced. All written material to be presented must have been seen by all parties prior to the GDC to allow for preparation, and to take legal advice if so desired. It is often tempting to provide as much information as possible, however, the information that is provided by the head teacher must be relevant to the decision to exclude a pupil. In order to help with this decision, the following checklist should be used:

Type of evidence	Exclusions for a 'one-off' serious incident	Exclusions for cumulative reasons
Details of the incident(s) in question	Must be provided	Must be provided
Statement from the pupil in question, signed and dated	Should be provided. (where a pupil has refused to provide a statement, evidence of doing so should be provided to confirm a request was made)	Must be provided
Witness statements, signed and dated	Must be provided	Must be provided
Behaviour log and details of previous incidents	No, unless there is a specific reason to do so	Must be provided
Attendance record	Not relevant	Not relevant
Details of support provided to the pupil	Only if relevant	Must be provided
Reports from any professionals involved with the pupil	Not relevant	Must be provided
Details of any SEN the pupil may have	Must be provided	Must be provided
Details of any disability the pupil may have	Must be provided	Must be provided
Academic reports	Not relevant	Not relevant
CAF	This must not be included in the GDC information and no area within the CAF should be shared with those present at the GDC due to confidentiality	This must not be included in the GDC information and no area within the CAF should be shared with those present at the GDC due to confidentiality
Other information	Only if relevant	Only if relevant

- 9.3 If a pupil has a history of challenging behaviour and is then permanently excluded for a one-off incident (which does not follow the pattern of behaviour which the pupil usually presents with) then the head teacher needs to exercise care about what information is provided. If details of prior misconduct are provided in the paperwork, the parent(s) could argue that the GDC has been biased by this information, building up a negative perception of the pupil that may well influence their final decision.
- 9.4 It is unlawful to exclude or increase the severity of an exclusion for a non-disciplinary reason. For example, it would be unlawful to exclude a pupil simply because they have additional needs or a disability that the school feels it is unable to meet, or for a reason such as: academic attainment / ability; the actions of a pupil's parents such as failing to ensure regular attendance at school; or the failure of a pupil to meet specific conditions before they are reinstated. As this information is not relevant to the GDC and their decision making, it should not be included in the paperwork for any exclusion.

10. Governor Disciplinary Committee

- 10.1 The GDC should ensure that a proper agenda for its meetings is prepared. This should cover the following:
- The Chair welcomes and introduces all parties.
 - The head teacher puts the case for exclusion.
 - The parents, governors and LA representative when present may question the head teacher.
 - The parents make their case against exclusion.
 - The head teacher, governors and LA representative (when present) may question the parents.
 - The LA representative (when present) makes a statement.
 - The parents, headteacher and governors may question the LA representative (when present).
 - The head teacher makes his/her concluding remarks.
 - The parents make their concluding remarks.
 - The Chair concludes the meeting and advises the parents/child that they will receive the decision of the governors in writing within 24 school hours.
- 10.2 At the end of the GDC, the governing body must ensure that all other parties have withdrawn before making a decision in private.
- 10.3 Where a GDC has been held to consider a permanent exclusion, the school must advise the LA within 24 school hours of the decision taken by the governing body in whether to uphold or overturn the exclusion.

11. Independent Review Panels

- 11.1 Independent Review Panels (IRPs) have replaced Independent Appeal Panels.

- 11.2 Following a GDC decision to uphold a permanent exclusion, the LA, if requested by parents, arrange for a review panel to be held within 15 school days of the parent's request.
- 11.3 The panel must consist of 3 – 5 members representing each of the categories below:
- A lay member to chair the panel who has not worked in any school in a paid capacity, disregarding any experience as a school governor or volunteer.
 - A school governor, who has served as a governor for at least 12 consecutive months in the last five years, provided he/she has not been a teacher or head teacher during this time.
 - A head teacher or individual who has been a head teacher within the last five years.
- 11.4 In addition, a clerk must be appointed who should not have served as clerk to the GDC meeting. He/she should have the training required by law and an up-to-date understanding of developments in case law, legislation and guidance which are relevant to exclusion.

12. The Role of the SEN Expert on the Independent Review Panel

- 12.1 When parents apply for an IRP to be held, they may request that a SEN expert attend the panel.
- 12.2 Parents have a right to request the attendance of a SEN expert at an IRP regardless of whether the school recognise that the child has SEN.
- 12.3 Arrangements must be made to indemnify a SEN expert against any legal costs and expenses reasonably incurred as a result of any decisions or actions connected to the review and which are taken in good faith.
- 12.4 Individuals may not serve as an SEN expert if they have, or at any time have had, a connection with the LA, school, pupil or parent or the incident leading to the exclusion which might reasonably be taken to raise doubts about their ability to act impartially. (However, an individual is not taken to have such a connection solely because he/she is an employee of the LA or school.)
- 12.5 The SEN expert should be a professional with first-hand experience of the assessment and support of SEN, as well as an understanding of the legal requirements on schools in relation to SEN and disability.
- 12.6 Reasonable steps should be taken to ensure that the parents have confidence in the impartiality and capability of the SEN expert and when possible this may include offering parents a choice of SEN expert.

- 12.7 The SEN expert's role is analogous to an expert witness to provide impartial advice to the IRP about how SEN could be relevant to the exclusion; for example, whether the school acted reasonably in relation to its legal duties when excluding the pupil.
- 12.8 The SEN expert's role does not include making an assessment of the pupil's SEN.
- 12.9 The focus of the SEN expert's advice should be on whether the school's policies which relate to SEN, or the application of these policies, were reasonable and procedurally fair (in line with the principles of legality, rationality and procedural propriety). If the SEN expert believes that this was not the case he/she should, where possible, advise the panel on the possible contribution which could have been made to the pupil's exclusion.
- 12.10 The SEN expert should not criticise school policies or actions simply because he/she believes a different approach should have been followed or because different schools might have taken a different approach.

13. The Remit of the Independent Review Panel

- 13.1 An IRP does not have the power to direct a governing body to reinstate an excluded pupil.
- 13.2 An IRP can make one of three decisions. It can:
- uphold the decision to exclude;
 - recommend that the GDC reconsiders its decision; or
 - quash the decision and direct the GDC to reconsider its decision.
- 13.3 If following a direction from the IRP, the GDC does not subsequently offer to reinstate a pupil, the panel will be expected to order that the school makes an additional payment of £4,000. This payment will go to the LA towards the costs of providing alternative provision for the pupil.

14. Governors' Training

- 14.1 It is very important that governors, who are called upon to be part of a GDC, receive training. ESBAS provides training sessions for governors on exclusion related policy, procedures and issues, and the expectation is that governors who are likely to be involved in exclusions should make every effort to attend. Training for clerks is also provided.

14.2 Training dates will be circulated for county wide training for which there will be a cost. In addition, whole school governor training sessions can be tailor made to suit the individual needs of school governors. Information and requests for training should be made to:

MODEL LETTER 8

Dear [Name(s) of parent(s)]

I am writing to advise you that the meeting of the Governors' Disciplinary Committee to review the Head Teacher's decision to permanently exclude [child's name] will take place at [place] on [date] at [time].

If you would like to attend the meeting of the Governors' Disciplinary Committee , please contact [enter "me" or the name of contact] at [contact details – address, telephone number, email] as soon as possible. You will have the opportunity to make representations to the panel. [Child's name] may attend the hearing with you. You may also be accompanied by a friend or representative, including a legal representative, if you wish. If you intend to be accompanied please let [enter "me" or the name of contact] know. Please advise if you have a disability or any special needs which would affect your ability to attend a meeting at the school. Also, please inform [enter "me" or the name of contact] if it would be helpful for you to have an interpreter present.

A representative of the Local Authority will be present at the Governors' Disciplinary Committee. For maintained schools - The Local Authority's position will be one of neutrality where the representative in attendance would not give his/her view on the merits of the particular exclusion as they would see it but rather, if asked by any party, act as an impartial third party, providing objective and dispassionate representations to assist the process.

At the meeting the Chair will explain the order of proceedings and a copy is enclosed with this letter for your information.

If you wish to make a written representation this should be forwarded to me at the above address at least five school days before the meeting, i.e. by [insert date] so that it may be circulated in advance to the members of the Committee and to all parties including the Head Teacher.

The committee will consider the representations made by all parties and decide whether to uphold the exclusion or to direct [child's name]'s reinstatement, either immediately or by a particular date.

As stated above, I would be grateful if you would let me know if you will be attending the meeting and if so, whether you will be accompanied (for Academies) - and if you would like a representative of the Local Authority to be present at the hearing.

Yours sincerely

2. Introduction and brief explanation of procedures by the Chair of the Governors' Disciplinary Committee.
3. The Head Teacher presents his/her reasons for the exclusion and calls such witnesses as he/she considers appropriate*.

6. The parent(s)/carer(s), or the excluded pupil if 18 years of age or over, and/or their representatives, may make representations to the Governors' Disciplinary Committee. Unless there are strong reasons to refuse, the Chair of the Governors' Disciplinary Committee should allow the excluded pupil to make a statement if he/she wishes. *Witnesses may remain in the room after giving their evidence or leave after any questions have been asked of him/her, but should not be present before giving their evidence.

MODEL LETTER 9

Dear [parent's name]

I am writing to confirm the decision reached by the Governors' Disciplinary Committee at their meeting on [date of Governors' Disciplinary Committee meeting] to review the Head Teacher's decision to exclude [child's name] from [name of school] School.

After careful consideration of all the evidence available and the representations made to the Governors' Disciplinary Committee, the committee has decided to uphold the Head Teacher's decision to exclude for the following reason(s) [inset reasons in as much detail as possible explaining how they were arrived at]

OR

direct reinstatement from [specify date] for the following reason(s)

[insert reasons in as much detail as possible explaining how they were arrived at]

[Where a permanent exclusion has not been upheld and reinstatement has been directed insert the next paragraph, omit the subsequent paragraphs and go to "Yours sincerely"]

The Head Teacher or a senior member of staff will contact you shortly to discuss the arrangements to be made for [child's name] to return to school

[Where a permanent exclusion has been upheld insert the following paragraphs]

You have the right to ask for this decision to be reviewed by an Independent Review Panel. If you wish the decision to be reviewed by the Independent Review Panel please notify the Schools Appeals Manager on 01273 – 481583 [or other body if Independent Review Panel hearings are not arranged for the School by the Local Authority] in the first instance. You should then set out the reasons for requesting a review in writing and send this to: Schools Appeals Manager, East Sussex County Council, Room C3F, County Hall, St Anne's Crescent, Lewes, BN7 1SW [or other body if Independent Review Panel hearings are not arranged for the School by the Local Authority] no later than [specify the latest date by which a review may be requested, i.e. 15 school days from the date on which notice in writing of the Governing Body's decision to uphold the permanent exclusion was sent to the parents (notice is deemed to have been given on the same day if it is delivered directly, or the second working day after posting if it is sent by first class mail)]. If you feel that your child has special educational needs relevant to this exclusion you should refer to this in your written statement. If you have not requested that a review is held by [repeat latest date] you will lose your right to have the decision of the Governors' Disciplinary Committee reviewed.

An Independent Review Panel comprises of one serving, or recently retired (within the last 5 years) Head Teacher, one serving, or recently serving, experienced governor and one lay member who will be the Chairman. The review panel will rehear all the facts of the case. If any party has fresh evidence to present to the panel they may do so.

If you ask for the Governors' Disciplinary Committees' decision to be reviewed by the Independent Review Panel you have the right to require that an expert in Special Educational Needs (SEN) attends the review at no cost to you. You may require that an SEN expert attends the hearing irrespective of whether the school believes your child has special educational needs or not. The SEN expert's role is analogous to an expert witness, providing impartial advice to the panel on how special educational needs may have been relevant to the exclusion. Should you request a review of the Governors' Disciplinary Committees' decision and you wish an SEN expert to be appointed please let the Schools Appeals Manager [or other body if Independent Review Panel hearings are not arranged for the school by the Local Authority] know.

I should also inform you that if you request a review of the Governors' Disciplinary Committee's decision you may, at your own expense, appoint a representative, including a legal representative, to make written and/or oral representations to the Independent Review Panel and that you may also bring a friend or supporter to the review. If you intend to be accompanied please let the Schools Appeals Manager [or other body if Independent Review Panel hearings are not arranged for the school by the Local Authority] know. Please also advise if you have a disability or any special needs which would affect your ability to attend the meeting and if it would be helpful for you to have an interpreter present.

Where a representative of the Local Authority attended the Governors' Disciplinary Committee meeting and made representation, he/she or another representative will also attend the review and submit a statement in advance.

In determining the outcome of a review the panel can make one of three decisions: they may uphold your child's exclusion; they may recommend that the Governors' Disciplinary Committee reconsiders its decision; or they may quash the decision and direct that the Governors' Disciplinary Committee considers the exclusion again. A panel should only quash a decision where it considers that it was flawed when considered in the light of the principles applicable on an application for judicial review.
